Student Name _____

1. Listen as your teacher goes over the instructions. Write what she tells you.

_____

_____   _____

_____   _____

2. Write your riddle here.

_____

_____

3. Write your answer here.

_____

5. Pretend that your teacher has asked you to paraphrase and summarize (in your own words) the directions so an absent student can learn how to play the game.

_____

_____

_____

_____

Other Examples to use:

DOG: "bark" think of "ark" and ask: What state has the most dogs??? Barkensas!!!
Think "fur" and ask, what planet is known for its canines? Furanus!!

Mouse: cheese, rat, hole, nest, nibble, Mickey Example: What ocean do mice swim in? The Ratlantic!

Beach: shell, sand, wave, boat, water, crab, fish, sea.
Examples:
- How do scallops greet each other? "Shello?"
- What do you call a crustacean holy man? A crabbi.
- And of course, what do seagulls have for lunch? Sandwiches.

Pot: pan, tray, bowl, spoon, cook, recipe
Example: What do you call a pot's great-grandparents? Pancestors!

Mule: donkey, straw, bray, hoof, tail
Example: What fabric does a donkey like best? Brayon!

Bucket: pail, water, hole, handle, well
Example: What do buckets have when they are sick? They have a pailment!

Weather: snow, sleet, rain, hail, wind, storm, cloud, calm, sun,
Example: Where do most storms start? In Windianapolis!

Carpenter: saw, hammer, plank, nail, board, wood
Example: What kind of meat does a carpenter like? Planksteak!

Weather: cloud, storm, thunder, rain, hail, sleet, snow
Example: What do weathermen wear beneath their clothes? Wonderwear (Thunderwear??)

And you could advance it to use one of the brainstormed words:
Alaska: ice, glacier, cold, frozen, north, snow
What religion is popular in Alaska? That good ol' Cold-Time Religion!
What stories do they listen to in Alaska? Cold Wives Tales
What kind of clothes do they wear in Alaska? You got it: Coldfashioned!